

Tomaso's

For many years I have enjoyed a passion and appreciation for great food and fine wines. There is something special about the taste of food paired with wine that can enhance an already sumptuous meal. Through my many Italian travels I have met several great winemakers and we have become good friends. Their passion for life is exemplified through the quality and consistency of their wines. So, I invite you to fill a glass with one of the suggested wines by the glass and join me in a toast to life and the pursuit of all things pleasurable.

In Vino Veritas Salute!
